About this course

Develop introductory teaching skills for delivering training in your own subject. This is a private Sunshine-accredited course, with a Sunshine certificate. It is not an Ofqual-regulated qualification.

Who can join and what you arrange

Suitable for aspiring trainers and industry practitioners with appropriate subject knowledge. Sunshine checks suitability before enrolment. Check that this private certificate meets your intended employer, insurer or awarding-body requirements.

Assessment and practical requirements

Complete written work and practical teaching evidence, including a 30-minute micro-teach that you arrange with suitable participants. Agree the format, evidence and any recording or live observation arrangements with Sunshine, and obtain the required permissions.

Course period and portal access

12 months from purchase to complete the course. Lifetime portal access is separate from the course-completion period. Apply for an extension if you need longer.

Tutor support

Email and WhatsApp: 9:30am-5:30pm, Monday-Friday, UK time. Replies within 1 working day; assignment feedback within 7 working days. Portal details within 2 working days after enrolment and eligibility checks.

Your next step

If you need an Ofqual-regulated teaching award, choose the Focus Awards AET. Ask about CET or DiT when you have the required teaching access.
